

The Atlantic slave trade ends 5 The migration of Huns across Eurasia 2 The Ming are overrun by Manchus 4 The Great Scramble for Africa 5 The Suez Crisis 6 The Mongols reestablish Silk Road trade 3 The Spanish sea-based empire is established 4 The Ottoman, Safavid, and Mughal Empires form 4 Mansa Musa makes his pilgrimage to Mecca 3 China's Self-Strengthening movement 5 Feudalism forms in Europe and Japan 3 Contact between Abbasids and Tang Dynasty 3 Mexican independence from Spain 4 Russia becomes a land-based empire 4 China and India give way to European imperialism 5 Independence struggle in Southeast Asia adopts communism 6 Millions migrate for industrial work 5 Alexander the Great establishes Bactria 2 The Incan Empire falls to the Spanish 4 The Crusades 3 The Sui build the Grand Canal 3 Mass migration to European cities from former colonies 6 Potatoes and Maize are introduced to Eurasia 4 The Vedic age 1 The Cold War 6 The Chinese civil service examination system begins 2 Indian Ocean trade reaches its peak 3 The first global network of trade begins 4 Zamindars become less relevant to Mughal economy Russia encourages peasant settlement of Siberia 4 Christianity spreads across the Mediterranean region 2 Baghdad becomes an important center of science and learning 3 Demand for copper increases because of telegraph and electricity 5 The Swahili city-states reach their heyday 3 Guano deposits in Peru are mined by Europeans 5 Marx criticizes industrial capitalism 5 The Meiji Restoration 5 Islam spreads across North Africa, Iberia 3	Nationalism becomes a new pressure on empires 5 Han China falls, Buddhism becomes popular 2 Jews and displaced Arabs struggle over territories in Palestine 6 Bolivar's Jamaican Letter 5 The Armenian genocide 6 New rice varieties allow intense urbanization in China 3 Constantinople falls, heralding an age of gunpowder states 4 Global economic crisis/governments take more control 6 The Romans dominate Mediterranean trade 2 Epic of Gilgamesh 1 The Sepoy Rebellion 5 West Africa becomes the focus of African/European trade 4 Sugar plantations introduced in the Americas 4 Man harnesses fire 1 Man harnesses steam power 5 The Pan-Arab movement 6 Tanzimat Reform 5 Taika Reform 3 The rise of Neo-Confucianism 3 Sparta defeats Athens 2 The cities of Mohenjo Dara and Harappa 1 Mongols rule China 3 5 Year Plans 6 Imperialism driven by need for raw material and markets 5 Imperialism driven by search for trade routes and religious conversions 4 Silk Roads first connect major civilizations from Europe to Asia 2 Most rapid decolonization in history 6 Massive Asian migration to Caribbean for agricultural work 5 Absolute Monarchies dominate many states in Western Europe 4 Imperial rule in China ends 6 Centralized rule first established in India 2 Cattle, horses, pigs introduced to the Americas 4 China's Great Leap Forward 6 Centralized rule emerges in North Africa, king thought to be divine 3 Phoenicians spread first alphabet across Mediterranean 2 Bronze allows for large cities to emerge 1 Napoleon invades Spain, sparks American independence movements 5 Silver income from pepper trade funds building of Taj Mahal 4
--	---

--	--